SYMPHONY in CINEMA

Symphony IN CINEMA

Welcome to the SpectiCast 2012/2013 "Symphony in Cinema" Exhibition Guide. Our catalogue is made up of both New Release and Encore titles.

Exhibitors can use these titles without screening restrictions as individual screenings or, together with our "Ballet in HD" and "Opera in HD" programs, as part of a series of alternative content programming. All titles are cleared for public performance subject to the terms and pricing in the SpectiCast Exhibition Agreement.

Our "Symphony in Cinema" Series features such stars as Anna Netrebko, Sir Simon Rattle, Renée Fleming, Annette Dasch, Jonas Kaufmann, Lang Lang, Sara Sant' Ambrogio, Daniel Barenboim, Alison Balsom, Claudio Abbado, and of course The Berliner Philharmoniker and come from venues of great beauty and importance including Berlin's world famous Philharmonie and Waldbühne Theatres, the Sheldonian Theatre at The University of Oxford, the beautiful historic concert hall of Esterházy Palace in Eisenstadt, Austria, the Mariinsky and Philharmonia Theatres in St. Petersburg and Teatro Real in Madrid, Spain.

These symphonies and operatic concerts are produced in beautiful high definition and 5.1 audio and feature some of the world's most honored and recognized organizations. Our Symphony in Cinema™ partners include The Berliner Philharmoniker led by chief conductor Sir Simon Rattle and often considered the best orchestra in the world; the New York Philharmonic led by music director Alan Gilbert and one of America's orchestras commonly referred to as the "Big Five," The Chamber Orchestra of Philadelphia where now the fine-tuned artistry and musicianship experienced by live audiences can be enjoyed by audiences across the world on the big screen, the world-renowned Philadelphia Orchestra another one of America's "Big Five," and The Curtis Institute of Music, an institution that educates and trains exceptionally gifted young musicians for careers as performing artists on the highest professional level and the most selective institution of higher education in the United States.
