

Live From Curtis

Event	Dates
Curtis Vocal Department Recital - Menotti Celebration Gian Carlo Menotti Centenary Celebration - Curtis celebrates the centenary of Gian Carlo Menotti with a recital of his works on Friday, February 4 at 8 p.m. The distinguished composer graduated from Curtis in 1933 and served on the faculty for 20 years. The recital is curated by Danielle Orlando, principal opera coach at Curtis, who had a long association with Menotti through the Festival dei due Mondi in Spoleto, Italy and Spoleto USA, as well as through the Pavarotti International Voice Competition.	Friday, February 4, 2011 at 8:00 PM ET (Live) Encore Screenings Available
Graduation Recital: Michelle Naughton, piano Michelle Naughton has been hailed by the San Francisco Examiner for her "stellar musicianship, technical mastery, and awe-inspiring artistry." She began her piano studies at the age of four and entered the Curtis Institute of Music in 2007. Ms. Naughton performs extensively as a soloist, with orchestra, and in piano duo with her sister, Christina, also a student at Curtis.	Friday, February 18, 2011 at 8:00 PM ET (Live) Encore Screenings Available
Graduation Recital: Elizabeth Fayette, violin Elizabeth Fayette, twenty-two, from Shoreham-Wading River, N.Y., began studying violin with her mother at the age of two. She entered the Curtis Institute of Music in 2006 and studies with renowned violinists Shmuel Ashkenasi and Pamela Frank. Ms. Fayette has appeared as a soloist with the Kenosha Symphony Orchestra, Kammergild Chamber Orchestra of St. Louis, University Orchestra at SUNY Stony Brook, Bach Aria Festival Orchestra, Long Island Philharmonic, Long Island's Sound Symphony, and Symphony Orchestra	Tuesday, April 26, 2011 at 8:00 PM ET (Live) Encore Screenings Available
Graduation Performance: Ray Chen, Violin Ray Chen is the top 2009 medal winner of the prestigious Queen Elisabeth Competition of Belgium, and also won the Young Concert Artists Auditions in 2009.	Wednesday, December 2, 2009 at 8:00 PM ET (Live) Encore Screenings Available
Curtis Vocal Department Performance Curtis opera and voice students perform songs, arias, and opera ensembles. This piece includes performances by Verdi, Puccini, Bellini, and Beethoven	Sunday December 13, 2009 at 3:00 PM ET (Live) Encore Screenings Available
Graduation Performance: Vicki Powell, Viola A winner of the Greenfield Young Artists Competition, Vicki Powell made her solo debut with the Philadelphia Orchestra last season and is principal violist of the Curtis Symphony Orchestra.	Tuesday, May 11, 2010 at 8:00 PM ET (Live) Encore Screenings Available
Samuel Barber Centenary Celebration Curtis marks the hundredth anniversary of one of the school's most celebrated alumni, Samuel Barber ('34). Included are the world premiere of an unfinished violin sonata complemented by movements by Curtis-connected composers, and Summer Music and Dover Beach, among other vocal and chamber works.	Tuesday, March 9, 2010 at 8:00 PM ET (Live) Encore Screenings Available